I think we have to as when Steve reached out to you, we confirmed the documentation and it is CM that Chairs/leads EOCCG. So, we have to be consistent with our docs.

Sounds good

We have to start looking broader for tow trucks and check in with the larger cities and Regions in Ontario and see what we can pull together

"Ayotte, Kim" <Kim.Ayotte@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 12:04 AM

Steve K has already reached out to John Tory of Toronto. Can you double check to make sure police have not done any of this already.

"Gooding, Beth" <beth.gooding@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 12:06 AM

Will do. My understanding is that it was Ottawa region only that Police consulted but I'll confirm. I wonder if we need to seek cross-border towing assistance?

"Ayotte, Kim" <Kim.Ayotte@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 12:09 AM

It was the mayor who contacted John Tory

"Gooding, Beth" <beth.gooding@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 12:19 AM

Confirmed that Police did not reach out to Toronto companies for towing support.

"Ayotte, Kim" <Kim.Ayotte@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 12:20 AM

Are they going too or is that some thing they want the EOC to jump on?

"Gooding, Beth" <beth.gooding@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 12:21 AM

They haven't asked us to. The EOC would likely work through the provincial EOC, and maybe ask the province to consult a bunch of jurisdictions on our behalf. We could even make it an RFA. They like that.

"Ayotte, Kim" <Kim.Ayotte@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 12:28 AM

Sure but ask Police if they want us to do that?

"Ayotte, Kim" <Kim.Ayotte@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 1:32 AM

Good job fixing that media inquiry!

"Gooding, Beth" <beth.gooding@ottawa.ca> 2/7/2022 1:33 AM

We're finding that the media are looking at everything with a magnifying glass. We needed it to be super accurate and aligned with our EM documentation. All good. 😊
